MEET OUR FACULTY

Our passionate team of instructors is dedicated to helping every dancer achieve their personal best in a supportive, creative, and empowering environment.

Our teachers are more than instructors, they are mentors, motivators, and role models. With diverse experience and a shared passion for dance, they help every student grow in both skill and spirit. Read all about our amazing team in the Faculty Bios section!

COMMITMENT & ATTENDANCE

At AIM, we believe that consistency leads to confidence and growth. Dance is a progressive art form, and regular attendance ensures dancers develop skills steadily while building muscle memory, teamwork, and performance readiness.

- Dancers are expected to register for and commit to the full dance season (September–May).
- Missed classes can disrupt progress, especially in choreography-heavy months leading up to performances or competitions.
- If a student misses more than three classes, they may be removed from recital or competition routines at the discretion of the teacher.
- Tardiness and frequent absences may impact class cohesion and readiness for performances.

We value your commitment and are here to support dancers every step of the way.

STUDIO ETIQUETTE & COMMITMENT

At AIM, we foster a studio environment built on respect, accountability, and a shared love of dance. To help dancers succeed and feel confident, we ask that all students follow these simple, meaningful guidelines:

- Respect for Your Instructors: Arrive with a positive attitude, ready to learn. Respect is shown by being attentive, quiet when needed, and open to feedback.
- Be On Time: Punctuality is part of preparation. Arriving late disrupts the class and puts dancers at risk of injury due to missing the warm-up. Dancers in Beginner to Level 1 should arrive at least 5 minutes early; Level 2 and up should arrive 15 minutes prior.
- Come Prepared: Full dress code is expected at every class, with hair secured appropriately (ballet buns for Ballet, Modern and Acro, neat ponytails or buns for Jazz, Hip Hop & Tap). Please remove jewelry for safety and bring all necessary dance shoes.
- Phones Away, Minds Engaged: Phones must be silenced and stored away before class. Let's be present in the moment, focusing on the training.
- Studio Loyalty & Focus: AIM dancers are expected to train exclusively at AIM throughout the season. This allows our faculty to invest fully in your dancer's growth. Students from other studios are welcome to join AIM for a season before deciding if they'd like to commit fully.
- Community Openings: All local dancers are welcome at AIM workshops and summer intensives, regardless of studio affiliation.

By following these expectations, we create a space where dancers can feel safe, respected, and productive for everyone.

ART IN MOTION (AIM) 2026-27 SEASON

If your dancer is unable to participate due to injury or illness for a prolonged period, a doctor's note and treatment plan will be required. Refunds may be issued based on the duration and nature of the absence. The dancer should also refrain from participating in other sports or physical activities during recovery.

AIM has a standard dress code for all levels, and all students are required to follow the appropriate dress code for each class. Proper attire supports discipline, safety, and freedom of movement and helps create a focused learning environment.

September tuition fees are payable at the time of registration through the Studio Pro app. Monthly invoices will be issued for tuition from Oct 1 through May 1. Students must be fully registered and payment arrangements settled to be admitted to the first class. No exceptions will be made.

Monthly finance charges will be applied to all outstanding balances on the 3rd of every month.

Tuition Payment Options

When registering for the season, families are required to pay the registration fees and first month's tuition within 7 days of submitting their registration online. This 7-day grace period gives families the flexibility to make payment via e-Transfer (EMT), AutoPay, or cash to the studio directly and avoid Portal Credit Card fees. If payment is not received within this grace period, Studio Pro will automatically apply finance charges (2.5%).

After this, monthly tuition invoices will be issued and must be paid by the 1st of each month. Late payments will incur finance charges. To avoid missed payments and additional fees, we strongly recommend families enroll in AutoPay through AIM to have tuition automatically withdrawn on the 1st of every month.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The system only takes online credit and debit card payments, and it charges processing fees of 3.05% of the total cost and $0.30 per transaction. If you prefer to pay via Cash, EMT or AIM AutoPay contact us directly and we will manually process your payments when sent to us. Any credit card or debit card payments made at the studio and not through the portal also charge these processing fees.
